AFRICAN BUSINESS FACTS:

Poultry Fact : One exemplary fact out of 49 African countries: The South African chicken market is worth R12 - R13 billion (1.3 - 1.4 billion) a year. There is a surge in domestic consumption of chicken. This is due to chicken being a more viable source of protein as it is cheaper than red meat, as well as a growing trend towards viewing chicken as a healthier protein.

Tourism Fact : A voluntary drive led by group of passionate returnees, in a project dubbed "Burundi, the beating heart of Africa," are reviving what used to be the biggest travel destination in central Africa. "Burundi Tourism 2008 - Agenda for Change." Burundi president Mr. Pierre Nkurunziza and the Minister of Trade and Tourism have been invited to preside over the event to take place on August 25th, 2008.
